The bill, entitled an Act making sundry appropriations for the support of the Government for the year ending the 1st day of January, 1874,

Endorsed, "Passed by yeas and nays."

The bill, entitled an Act to repeal section 16, of Article XLI., of the Code of Public General Laws, title "Fish and Fisheries," sub-title "Potomac,"

Being upon a third reading,

Mr. Chapman submitted the following amendment as a substitute:

AMENDMENT PROPOSED.

16. It shall not be lawful for any one to fish in the Potomac River, or its tributaries, with gill-nets, during the months of March, April, May and June, except the bona fide citizens of the counties bordering on said river; and in case any one is charged with the violation of this section, the burden of proof of citizenship shall be upon the offender.

Which was read.

Mr. Chapman moved that the further consideration of the bill, with pending amendment, be postponed, and that the same be referred to the Charles and Prince George's delegations.

The question recurring upon concurring in the motion,
